

Equality in Practice

This 90 minute workshop aims to assist you in understanding and meeting your responsibilities in respect of Equality and Diversity.

Objectives

By the end of this session you will:

- know what characteristics are protected by law and be able to give at least two examples of each of these;
- understand what is meant by prohibited conduct;
- have the skills to apply this to practical daily situations.

Course outline

The following sections will be covered during the session:

- Legislation and other instruments
- What is “Prohibited Conduct”?
- What are the “Protected Characteristics”?
- Defining “Disability” and making “Reasonable Adjustments”
- Applying the theory to daily situations

Who is this for?

The workshop is designed for anyone working at or associated with a GP Practice, such as Patient Participation Group members.

What is the cost?

There is no charge for attending this workshop.

How to book

To arrange for a session at your practice, please contact Lee Reed – Quality & Equality Officer on 01935 381933 or by email: lee.reed2@nhs.net